

How lucky am I that could meet Prowess when I was a fresh graduated student 3 years ago major in an Accountancy field. Like most of the fresh-graduated student, it was not easy to find any job due to lack of working experience related to my professional. Prowess is an amazing recruitment consultant company which assists me to have a perfect match in my career. You can easily search for “PROWESS” in Google and Yahoo.

To gain valuable experience for job seeking, Prowess is a key I need to mention. Consultants in Prowess are the expertise to assist the candidates to find the job in an effectively and efficiently way. They walk through with me in every single step that increases my level of confidence. It is like a communication more than an interview and not in a “Q&A talk”. Before knowing Prowess, I was so nervous to handle every interview which I was found that very stressful. After meeting up Prowess team, they taught me the interview skill that I have no fear to handle any interview any more. This experience was so memorable and unforgettable in my life.

In order to have a successful interview, you must know what is your strength and weakness. Prowess is good at identify your strength and weakness during the interview. Prowess consultant is sharpened my interview skill if there have any deficiency finding. Reminders and close follow-up have been made before and after the interview in order to close the gap.

At last, Prowess brings me no fear to encounter the interview and act very professional to walk through with their candidates for job seeking. I highly recommend Prowess to all of you that it is a good platform for job matching.
